THE COVENANT PREPARATORY SCHOOL CHRISTIANITY AND SUPERHERO MOVIES SUMMER CAMP 2019

July 8 - 12

Incoming 9th - 12th Grade • 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.

This camp will take place at the Upper School Campus, the Black Box Theater. Students will watch superhero films with an eye towards 9th-12th graders. Movies will be PG or “friendly” PG-13 (i.e., minimal language and sexual content). Movies will be viewed and then analyzed from a Christian point of view. Basic film literacy will be taught, including basic 3-act story structure and audio-visual storytelling elements such as cinematography, editing, acting, and sound design. Students will learn to see deeper arguments within stories and determine their compatibility with the Christian faith. Special attention will be given to how the protagonist’s development can inform our own spiritual development. On July 12th, the students will go to Showbiz Cinema to watch the new Spider-man movie. Camp cost is $100. (Includes usage of facilities, equipment, bus, driver and movie ticket cost).

Camp coordinators will be Mr. Martin.

THE COVENANT PREPARATORY SCHOOL SCIENCE AND SUPERHERO MOVIES SUMMER CAMP 2019

July 8 - 12
Incoming 9th - 12th Grade • 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.

This camp will take place at the Upper School Campus in the Black Box Theater. Students who have watched superhero films in Mr. Martin's morning session will return to analyze certain aspects of the films from a scientific standpoint. Real scientific and mathematical concepts will be used to approach questions such as "Could the momentum of a metal hammer actually cause a person to fly?" or "What would happen to human tissue if it were struck by a being with unlimited strength?" This camp will be teacher-led but student-centered, meaning that the critical thinking and application of scientific and mathematical concepts used to gauge the accuracy of the hypotheses devised to answer these questions will fall on the students. (Snacks are included.)

Camp cost is $100 • Camp coordinator will be Mr. Coleman
